Invitation to the Event

Emerging and Developing Countries – What Role Can They Play for German Business in Times of Geopolitical Uncertainty?

4th of March 2025

13:00-14:00h

In light of growing geopolitical uncertainties, traditional markets such as the USA, China, and Russia are becoming increasingly complex for German businesses. As a result, there is a heightened focus on exploring the potential of emerging and developing countries as alternative growth drivers for the German economy.
We would like to invite you to an insightful online conference to discuss this topic:

Emerging and Developing Countries – What Role Can They Play for German Business in Times of Geopolitical Uncertainty?

Agenda

Introduction by Prof. Dr. Stefan Liebing

Overview about Economic Growth and Opportunities in Challenging Times by Prof. Dr. Andreas Freytag, Jena and Stellenbosch Universities

Keynote with Takeaways from Davos and the Munich Security Conference – How to Translate Economic Potential into Success by H.E. Ambassador Yusuf Tuggar, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Federal Republic of Nigeria

We would be delighted to have you join us and contribute to the discussion. To participate, please apply informally by contacting Lena Gliem at info@rethinking-africa.com. Due to limited capacity, we will inform you in due course whether we can accept your participation.
